

Interim Director of Worship

We are a GROWING and PROGRESSIVE, multigenerational, multiracial United Church of Christ congregation, that has just brought on our new Pastor, Reverend Leslie Jackson. We are looking for an Interim Director of Worship who can take our music program to the next level. Pastor Leslie describes the music ministry best by saying “The music should bring the fire and my sermons should bring the gasoline”. We are looking for someone to help us bring that fire with exuberant, exciting and meaningful worship. This is a 7-month position with the possibility of extension or permanent offer.

You Are

- A passionate & gifted musician and vocalist and can prove it!
- A natural communicator on stage and off
- A professional worship leader who knows how to sing and arrange music
- Someone who is progressive and open to creating high energy worship experiences with a passion for varying worship styles

You Will

- Design all aspects of the worship experience with an emphasis on cohesion between the sermon themes and musical choices
- Lead the 10am worship experience vocally and logistically
- Lead an existing praise team while simultaneously creating other groups or choirs
- Lead a weekly practice with musicians and singers

You Must

- Love Collaborating - not competing with other talented creatives
- Understand the role of music to enable faith formation and a spiritual worship experience
- Recruit, Inspire and Lead volunteer musician teams
- Ability to thrive under pressure
